Clywais Daniel yn dweud unwaith mal brodor o Lansantffraid (tua godre'r sir) ydoedd. Daeth i weithio fel saer maen ar ystad Gogerddan a bu o dan Syr Pryse Pryse am gyfnod maith. Byddai yn gweithio yma ac acw fel doi'r galw, yn adeiladu, atgyweirio, neu dynnu i lawr. Gŵr tal, uchel ei lais, yn rhinwedd ei safle fel saer maen y stad ac yn dod i gysylltiad a llawer math o bobl. Cymerai ddiddordeb mawr mewn gwleidyddiaeth, ac yn Geidwadwr selog. Bu yn aelod ar y Bwrdd Ysgol, ac yn un o'r rhai olaf arno pan ddiddymwyd y Byrddau Ysgol. Cofiaf amdano un tro ar ddydd etholiad Seneddol y sir yn gweiddi ar uchaf ei lais, "Does neb ohonoch yn gwybod faint yw nerth Hamer." Un o'r rheini oedd yn gwneud hanes oedd ef. Adroddai am un tro digrif o'i eiddo. Mewn rhyw fan yn gweithio a gwraig y lle heb fod yn rhy garedig tuag ato. Pan yn codi mur, yn gafael yn y tebot oedd ar y bwrdd a'i gladdu yn y cerrig, ac yno y mae hyd y dydd hwn.]

I heard Daniel say once that he was a native of Llansantffraid (bottom of the county). He came to work as a stonemason at Gogerddan Estate under Sir Pryse Pryse for a long period. He worked here and there as circumstances called, building, repairing or dismantling. A tall man, vociferous as fitted his role as a stonemason on an estate who came in contact with many people. He took an interest in politics and was a zealous Conservative. He was a member of the School Board, and was a member when the Board Schools came to an end. I remember once on election day for the County MP shouting on the top of his voice: "No-one knows the strength of a Hamer". One who made history. He recalled a funny story: Once working for a woman who was not too kind to him : when he was erecting a wall, grabbing hold of the teapot which was on the table and burying it in the stones, and it is still there. Y ddau grydd o Benrhiw Newydd:

Crefft enillfawr yn y dyddiau gynt oedd crefft crydd, yn enwedig pan oedd llawer o wisgo ar esgidiau o waith cryddion gwlad, ac yn hynod iawn digwyddai dau ohonynt fyw yn agos i'w gilydd yn y lle bach uchod, ar ben y bryn uwchben Salem, ac yn wynebu Ysgol Trefeurig. Enwau'r ddau oedd Morris Morris a Dafydd Hughes. Efallai mai y mwyaf poblogaidd oedd Dafydd Hughes, yn arbennig yn ein golwg ni blant yr ysgol. Byddai ef yn hoff lawn o blant, yn gartrefol iawn yn ein cwmni. Disgynnai i'n rhan yn fynych i fynd yno yn ystod yr awr ginio i fynd a sgidiau i'w tappo. A dyna lle byddai Dafydd wrth ei fodd yn ein holi, ac yn pwnio'r hoelion adref 'run pryd. Am Morris, roedd ef yn fwy tawedog a reserve, ac yn gwneud llai â phlant. Ystyrid ef yn grefftwr gwyach. Ffyddlon iawn fu Morris gyda chrefydd yn Salem, a Dafydd yr un modd yn Horeb, Penrhyn-coch.]

The Cobbler's trade was a lucrative trade long ago, when many wore footwear made by country cobblers. Strange enough it so happened that two lived in the small hamlet of Penrhiwnewydd, on top of the hill above Salem facing Trefeurig School. Their names were Morris Morris and Dafydd Hughes. Perhaps the most popular was Dafydd Hughes in the eyes of us children. He enjoyed the company of children. Often we would visit his workshop during the school lunch hour to repair our shoes. And then Dafydd would enjoy asking questions and tapping the shoes at the same time.

For Morris he was more reserved, and did less with us children. He was recognised as a skilled craftsman. Morris was faithful in Salem and Dafydd in Horeb. HGPT-JPE]

Physically a small man, with a red beard and lively in spirit. We as children called him ‘Dark John Hughes’ because he was blind. Eloquent of speech, on his feet and on his knees. Despite blind he would go on his own to remote places. Many a time he would visit Allt y Llwyn to fetch hazel branches to make baskets. Tradition has it that he lost his knife then once on his return visit found it. HGPT-JPE]

Another Englishman, and a schoolmaster at the Church School at Penrhyn-coch. He earned his reputation as a good teacher. He was an able musician and served as Church organist. At this time musicians who could play instruments were rare. He was called to play in Garn Chapel (Bow St) instead of J. T. Rees, Mus Bac, who taught the local choir and became later well-known in Eisteddfodau and hymn singing festivals. [HGPT-JPE]

An important part of the lead industry was the job of carrying the lead to Bow St or Llandre, and there were many carriers involved in this work, and amongst them was Anne James and her husband James, and of the two Anne was the most notable. One of the boggest and storngest woman I ever saw. She would arrive with the wagon and four horses (with her son John) to fetch lead from Cwmsebon, and she could lift two 100lb bags – one in each hand, from the storehouse to the wagon. [HGPT -JPE]

Memories from long ago: She remembers letters distributed by her uncle on horsenback fo ten shillings a week. An organist at Horeb for 60 years, and during the Chapel's refurbishment the Services were held in the Club Room above the PO. When the only telephone in the village was the one in the PO, she would receive messages on behalf of everyone in the village. Retired in c.1956.

[Ann James, y Carrier:

Rhan bwysig ac anhepgor ynglŷn â'r gweithfeydd plwm, oedd y gorchwyl o gludo plwm i Bow Street neu Llandre, ac roedd amryw garriers yn ennill bywoliaeth wrth hyn, ac yn eu mysg Ann James a'i gŵr James, ac o'r ddau y wraig oedd fwyaf amlwg. Un o'r benywod mwyaf a chryfaf welais erioed. Byddai yn dod efo'r wagen a phedwar ceffyl (gyda'i mab John) i nôl plwm o Gwmsebon, a galiai gario dau fag can pwys yr un, un ar bob llaw, o'r ystordy i'r wagen.]

An important part of the lead industry was the job of carrying the lead to Bow St or Llandre, and therer were many carriers involved in this work, and amongst them was Anne James and her husband James, and of the two Anne was the most notable. One of the boggest and storngeest woman I ever saw. She would arrive with the wagon and four horses (with her son John) to fetch lead from Cwmsebon, and she could lift two 100lb bags – one in each hand, from the storehouse to the wagon. [HGPT -JPE]

Accidental Death

On Saturday night Mr Abraham Jones, of Penrhyncoch, near Gogerddan, met with his death under extraordinary circumstances. It seems that Mr Jones (who was formerly an Auctioneer of considerable practice in this town), has been for some years working as a farm labourer, being unfortunately reduced in circumstances He had been employed for a length of time in the neighbourhood of Penrhyncoch, and probably made his home in that locality. He visited the house of Mr Evan Jones, of Penybontrhydybeddan, near Penrhyncoch, on the night of Saturday last, and was asked to take some supper, when he consented, and it is said that the first morsel he helped himself with stuck in his throat, and to the great surprise and alarm of those on the spot he was actual choked and died before any medical assistance could be procured. We are informed that the unfortunate man had taken supper once or twice the same evening.

 Mewn plwyf a chymaint a weithfeydd ynddo naturiol yw casglu fod gwaith ar raddfa helaeth i ofiaid. Yng Nghwmerfyn y trigai Dafydd Jones. Heblaw bod yn ddiwyd gyda'i alwedigaeth feunyddiol, yr oedd yn un o sylfaenwyr yr achos crefydd ym Methlehem, a bu'n ffyddlon a theyrngar iddo hyd y diwedd. Wyr iddo ydyw Idwal Jones, BA, awdur Dramâu a Cherddi Digrif.]

In a parish with so many mines it is natural to assume that there was plenty of work for blacksmiths. Dafydd Jones lived in Cwmerfyn. Apart from being busy in his daily work, he was one of the founder members of Bethlehem and was faithful and loyal to the cause until the end. A grandson of his was Idwal Jones BA, author of plays and comic verse.

Yn fwy adnabyddus fel John R. Efo gadd y gwaith o ofalu am y ffordd wedi marw Tudor Pugh. Cyn hynny, gweithiai feb mwnwr. Hen lanc fu ef ar hyd ei oes. Cymeriad doniol, yn siarad heb fod yn hygryw, nac yn ddealladwy iawn, er yn siaradwr cyhoeddus lled huawdl. Meddai ar stôr helaeth o hanesion a storïau, a medrai eu hadrodd gyda blas. Bu ei chwaer, Marged Jones Gwargerddi byw i weld hir ddyddiau, a bron hyd ddiwedd ei gyrfa cafodd iechyd da, fel ag i fod o wasanaeth mawr i'r achos crefydd yn Salem, lle bu John R. yn swyddog yno am hir. Yr oedd hithau yn maternity nurse o'r hen ffasiwn hefyd.

Better known as John R. He was given the job of caring for the roads after the death of Tudor Pugh. Before this he was employed as a miner. A lifelong bachelor. A comical character, who did not speak very clearly but nevertheless a fluent public speaker. He possessed a store of stories which he could relate with aplomb.

His sister Marged Jones, Gwargerddi had a long life and good health until the end, and of good Service to the cause at Salem, where John R. Was an officer for a long time. She was a maternity nurse. [HGPT – JPE]

Dioddefodd y wraig hon boenau corphorol trymion am lawer blwyddyn. Pymtheg mlynedd yn ol, bu hi, gydag eraill, yn nghwmni boneddiges o Dreffynnon yn gweled rhyfeddodau 'Devil's Bridge' a dywedai hi na fu awr yn iach ar ôl cerdded i lawr y grisiau at yr afon yn y fan hono, i gael golwg ar hyllwech y lle; ac felly, bu yn afiach iawn am 15 mlynedd; a phoenau dirfawr a gafodd yn ei choroph yn yr adeg hirfaith yna.

Yr oedd Mrs. Jones o dan argraphiadau, ac o duedd grefyddol er pan yn ieuangc. Yr oedd yn aelod o eglwys lesu Grist yn Capel Uchaf, Cwmerfin. Y Sabbath olaf y bu byw, yr oedd yn griddfan gan ei phoenau corphorol, ac yn dymuno ar i rywrai ei symmud, er ei hesmwythau, ac yn dyweyd 'nas gallasai neb ofalu am dani ond yr Hollalluog.' Rhyw bedair awr cyn llithro i'r afon, gofynai i chwaer grefyddol pwy oedd yn cynnal cyfarfod gweddio yn y capel y noson hono. Claddwyd hi mewn bedd wrth ddrws capel Salem. Cymro ydoedd ef fodd bynnag, o'r gwadn hyd y corun, a Chymro a garai ei wlad, yn arbennig ei phethau gorau a chysegredig. Tra yn y Darren mynychai yr achos yn Siloa, Cwmerfyn lle bu yn ddiakon, ac ar ôl symud i fyw i Aberystwyth, daliodd ei gariad a'i ddiddordeb yn Siloa a Salem hyd y diwedd.

A Welshman to his core, and loved the best and sacred of his native Country. While in Darren he attended Siloa, Cwmerfyn, where he was a deacon, and after moving to Aberystwyth, his love for Siloa and Salem remained until the end.

Am gyfnod byr y bu ef yn Horeb, Penrhyn-coch. Symudodd i Ogledd Cymru, ac wedi hynny i'r De. Ei enw barddonol oedd 'Y Gwenith Gwyn. Gwelais gyfeiriad yn ddiweddar am ei farw.
Dringodd i safle uchel gydag enwad y Bedyddwyr.

For a short period he was a member at Horeb, Penrhyn-coch. He moved to North Wales, and then to South Wales. His bardic name was Y Gwenith Gwyn. I saw a reference to his death lately. He climbed to high rank within the Baptist cause. [HGPT -JPE]
