Teithio'r wlad fyddai ef yn rhinwedd ei alwedigaeth fel glanhawr clociau. Bu yn byw yn Bronheulwen, gyferbyn a Thyngelli, efo a'i fam. Ei henw ydoedd Mari, a byddai Tomos yn mynd dan yr enw 'Tomos Mari'. Tenau a gweddol dal, gwallt du fel y fran, a dillad duon fel rheol wisgai bob amser, a'r un dillad o ran hynny fyddai amdano am yn hir iawn. Cymeriad hynod o aflêr ydoedd Tomos, yn perchen trwyn pur fawr. Wedi marw Mari, aeth i letya yn Aberystwyth, gan barhau i deithio'r wlad, ar draws ac ar hyd. Cawsai ddigonedd o waith, er hynny yn byw yn grintachlyd iawn, gymaint felly fel na fynnai sebon i olchi ei wyneb a'i ddillad; roedd trwch o faw blynnyddoedd arnynt. Fodd bynnag, enillodd air da fel trwsiw'r clociau.]

He would travel the Country as a clock cleaner. He lived in Bronheulwen, opposite Tyngelli, with his mother. Her name was Mari, and he was known as Tomos Mari. Thin, quite tall with black hair, and as a rule black clothes, and the same ones for a long time. A rough character with a fairly long nose. After Mari's death he went to Aberystwyth and continued travelling. Although he had plenty of work, he lived miserly, so much so that soap was sparingly used – on his clothes and face; a thick layer of dust on each. Yet he earned a good word as a clock repairer. 	Mr. Evan J. Roderick, a native of Salem Coed Griffith, has been elected chairman of Rhondda Urban Council. Mr. Roderick was born in 1876 and when twelve years of age lost his father. After leaving the elementary school he worked in local lead mines. When 15 years of age he went to the Rhondda and settled at Clydach Vale and took an active part at the Congregational Church at that place. His pastor was the Rev. Thomas Williams, now living at Llanon. Mr. Roderick not only took prizes at Scriptural examinations but was awarded prizes for essays, English as well as Welsh, at eisteddfodau. He took interest in the Sunday School and the Literary Society and was one of the founders of a local I.L.P. branch. In 1910 he was elected member of Rhondda Urban Council and served on committees, for two years having been chairman of the Education Committee. During the recent struggle between that Committee and the teachers over salaries he conducted the business with skill and tact. Labour has in him a sympathetic and wise leader. Cambrian News 16.5.1919

Dyma yr ysgolfeistr cyntaf wyf yn ei gofio yn Ysgol y Bwrdd (bryd hwnnw) Trefeurig. Sais, os cofiaf yn iawn o Cornwall. Bu am flynyddoedd yn Nhrefeurig, yn fawr ei barch. Arferai Mrs Spurway ddysgu gwnïo i'r merched. Er yn Sais, llwyddodd i ddeall a dysgu gryn dipyn o Gymraeg, ac yn berchen ysbryd boneddigaidd iawn. Symudodd ef a'r teulu i Cornwall, ac yno y bu farw wedi rhai blynyddoedd hir o drigo yno.]

This is the first schoolmaster I remember in Trefeurig Board School. An Englishman, if I remeber who came from Cornwall. He was a schoolmaster for years, and much appreciated. Mrs Spurnway used to reach needlework to the girls. Despite being an Englishman he was able to understand and teach some Welsh, and possessed a gentlemanly spirit. He and his family moved back to Cornwall and eventually died after a long life [HGPT – JPE]

Bu galw mawr am ei gwasanaeth gyda mamau pan yn geni plant, a hynny yn aml ganol nos fel canol dydd, a gwnai hynny heb dâl.]

A very special character. Straight talking. I believe she did not know hypocrisy. She showed a great interest in animals. She continued when she could to visit Bwlchystyllen on sheep shearing day, and it was very interesting to listen to her, in her own original way, talking of certain characters and circumstances. She was in big demand to deliver babies, which she readily did during the night as during the day, and entirely without any remuneration. [HGPT – JPE]

A minister in Salem and Siloa for many years. During his ministry membership at Salem was numerous and strong but declining rapidly. Lively in spirit and fully committed. He was Secretary of the Board School for some time, and took great interest in daily events. He moved to Cwmaman where he died. [HGPT – LPE].

A notable character, virtuous and beautiful, warm of heart and easy to love. As a boy, he aimed to be a preacher but; he had an opportunity for a while but he was called home before finishing his education, his many friends in that dark hour could not say nor do anything but weep

An old man, but lively in spirit with a long beard. He worked as a stonemason. Read widely regularly receiving Y Faner. One can say about y Faner that it was the only weekly paper that came out to the Country apart from the local papers (Cambrian News and Observer) in those days. I heard one of the staff at Aberystwyth PO saying that there was so much sales that half a ton of the paper passed through every week. It can be said that Issac Williams drank deep of the spirit and principles of y Faner Fawr. A Liberal to the core and one of the pillars of the Cause at Horeb. His son is Morgan Williams, Arthog. A former schoolmaster, now receiving his pension, but as lively as ever, and remains useful and of Service to his community. [HGPT-JPE]
